

Number 25/26 (Summer 2005)

Special Collection: Governance in the Provincial Norths

Still Forgotten?: The Politics and Communities of the Provincial Norths, Gary N. Wilson and Greg Poelzer

Reconciliation in Northern British Columbia?: Future Prospects for Aboriginal–Newcomer Relations, Ken S. Coates and W. R. Morrison

Federalism in the Russian Provincial Norths: Lessons for Nunavik?, Gary N. Wilson

Local Government in Northern British Columbia: Competing or Cooperating?, William D. Kennedy

Some Thoughts on a Northern Ministry for British Columbia, Paul Ramsey

A Comparison of North-South and West-East Differences in Political Attitudes in Canada, Boris DeWiel

Municipal Governance for Northern Communities: Perspectives from Saskatchewan, Joseph Garcea

A Modest Proposal?: Diversity and the Challenge of Governance in Northern Alberta, Ian Urquhart

The Tailings of Canadian Politics: The North-South Political Divide, Tracy Summerville and Greg Poelzer

Contributions to Understanding the North

Literatura Borealis: Circumpolar Themes in the Work of Nils-Aslak Valkeapää, Kathleen Osgood Dana

Globalization and Development in a Post-Nomadic Hunter-Gatherer Village: The Case of Arctic Village, Alaska, Steven C. Dinero

Eddie With FAS: Getting What He Needs in a Remote Alaskan Community, Maureen F. Harwood and Judith Smilg Kleinfeld

The Role of Skis and Skiing in the Settlement of Early Scandinavia, John Weinstock

Water, Gold and Obscurity: British Columbia's Bullion Pit, Peter R. Mulvihill, William R. Morrison and Sherry MacIntyre