COURSE CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

This course introduces students to the profession of social work, its theory and practice. Students examine the philosophy and practice of social work in Canada, both in First Nations and non-First Nations communities.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Students will be provided with an overview of the historical, ideological, and theoretical perspectives that have shaped and continue to inform the models and means of contemporary Canadian social work practice.

Specific values and principles are at the very core of what social workers do and why we do it; these are expressed through professional conduct that is guided by the Social Work Code of Ethics. Throughout this course students will be asked to critically reflect upon and to compare their own values and perspectives with those of the social work profession, within the context of enhancing social welfare for diverse populations. Students will also learn about the specific issues and challenges for social workers practicing in Yukon.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of this course students will have acquired the following knowledge and skills:

- Ability to discuss the major influences in the development of social work and the social welfare system in Canadian Society.
- Understanding of the values, knowledge, and skills that distinguish social work from other professions.
- Familiarity with the more common social work theories and models of practice, and an increased capacity to think critically about the current practice of social work.
- Cognizance of the broad scope of practice with diverse populations. Students will be able to recognize and discuss the three levels or “targets” of social work intervention: large-scale systems, including whole communities, nations (macro); neighborhoods, organizations, other small groups (mezzo); and, individuals and/or families (micro).
- Familiarity with Yukon First Nations’ initiatives through self-government to assume responsibility for the planning and delivery of social welfare programs and services.
- Greater awareness of their personal suitability and/or readiness for choosing social work as a profession.

COURSE FORMAT

This course takes an “adult education” approach which facilitates active participation and meaningful collaboration of all student participants. See Course Requirements/Evaluation for detailed expectations. A variety of instructional methods will be used, including formal lectures, group discussion, and guest speakers. Course content will be covered through formal lecture and assigned readings. Students will also be encouraged to enhance learning for themselves and others by contributing their own resource materials, knowledge, and experience to class discussions and activities. Students will have the opportunity to practice skills required in the field.

ASSESSMENTS

Attendance & Participation
Punctual attendance and full participation is essential. This means you must attend all classes, be prepared to participate (by completing the readings and assignments on the dates due) and willing to engage with others in an open and collaborative manner. Students are encouraged to introduce topics and/or share materials from media that are relevant to the social welfare system and the social work profession.

Classes will often include experiential components. While there is no grade for participation and/or attendance, full participation will not only benefit you, but will also enhance the learning environment for your student peers.

Assignments
Writing Competence: Competency in written work is a basic requirement for all students at a college or university level. Wherever possible, instructors are expected to obtain evidence of students’ writing skills, and to require that students meet a reasonable standard of competence in their written work before they can be given a passing grade. Students who require additional academic assistance and/or wish to improve their writing skills may find it useful to contact the Writing Centre. Free 30-minute one-on-one coaching sessions are available in the YC Library. Appointments are arranged online dl1.yukoncollege.yk.ca/writingcentre/. Use the writing lab if you think you need to improve your written work.

Late Assignments: Five (5) % of the assignment’s value will be deducted for every day it is late, up to a maximum of five days, after which the assignment will not be accepted.

Style: Assignments must be typed and written using appropriate language. Carefully proof your work. Errors in spelling, grammar, and punctuation will affect your mark.

American Psychological Association 6th Edition (APA): You must use APA 6th Edition format when submitting your work. For general information on APA please visit Purdue Owl https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/section/2/10/. Each instance of an APA error in a written assignment will result in the deduction of .5% of your grade for that particular assignment up to a maximum of 20 errors (10% of grade for assignment).

Rewrites: The instructor is under no obligation to provide you opportunities to re-do your work after it has been submitted for marking. If you are given an opportunity to re-submit an assignment for marking, the highest grade you can obtain is 70%.

Tests
There are no tests for this course

Final Exam
This course has no final exam.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOKS AND MATERIALS

Readings for this class draw from a traditional textbook and an instructor reprotext (available in the college bookstore) that highlights alternative viewpoints from academic and non-academic authors of Canadian social work literature. Some readings will also be posted to the class Moodle and/or reserved at the Library.

Readings are marked in the outline as either Textbook, Reprotext or Moodle/Reserved at Library

ACADEMIC AND STUDENT CONDUCT

Information on academic standing and student rights and responsibilities can be found in the current Academic Regulations that are posted on the Student Services/Admissions & Registration web page.

PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism is a serious academic offence. Plagiarism occurs when students present the words of someone else as their own. Plagiarism can be the deliberate use of a whole piece of another person’s writing, but more frequently it occurs when students fail to acknowledge and document sources from which they have taken material. Whenever the words, research or ideas of others are directly quoted or paraphrased, they must be documented according to an accepted manuscript style (e.g., APA, CSE, MLA, etc.). Resubmitting a paper which has previously received credit is also considered plagiarism. Students who plagiarize material for assignments will receive a mark of zero (F) on the assignment and may fail the course. Plagiarism may also result in dismissal from a program of study or the College.

YUKON FIRST NATIONS CORE COMPETENCY

Yukon College recognizes that a greater understanding and awareness of Yukon First Nations history, culture and journey towards self-determination will help to build positive relationships among all Yukon citizens. As a result, to graduate from ANY Yukon College program, you will be required to achieve core competency in knowledge of Yukon First Nations. For details, please see www.yukoncollege.yk.ca/yfnccr.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION

Reasonable accommodations are available for students requiring an academic accommodation to fully participate in this class. These accommodations are available for students with a documented disability, chronic condition or any other grounds specified in section 8.0 of the Yukon College Academic Regulations (available on the Yukon College website). It is the student’s responsibility to seek these accommodations. If a student requires an academic accommodation, he/she should contact the Learning Assistance Centre (LAC) at (867) 668-8785 or lassist@yukoncollege.yk.ca.
LORENE ROBERTSON WRITING CENTRE

All students are encouraged to make the Lorene Robertson Writing Centre a regular part of the writing process for coursework. Located in C2231 (adjacent the College Library), the Lorene Robertson Writing Centre offers half-hour writing coaching sessions to students of all writing abilities. Coaching sessions are available in person and through distance technologies (e.g., email plus Skype or phone). For further information or to book an appointment, visit the Centre's website: www.yukoncollege.yk.ca/student_info/pages/writing_centre.

OVERVIEW OF ASSIGNMENTS

Detailed description of the first assignment, requirement, and due date will be provided on the first day of class. Descriptions of subsequent assignments will be provided no later than 6 weeks prior to the due date. Please note: all written assignments must meet the standard for accuracy in grammar and punctuation that is expected at a university level. Written assignments must also be well organized and typed/computer generated.

Assignment 1 - Defining Social Issues & Social Problems (15%)
Due Week 4
For this assignment students will select a social issue relevant to the local context (Yukon/Community). Using their own perspectives, the perspectives of community members and the academic literature students will be asked to explain why they feel that this particular issue qualifies as a social problem.

Assignment 2 - (Group Assignment) - Social Work in the Yukon (30%)
Due Weeks 8 & 9
This group assignment asks students to select a field of social work practice (i.e. child welfare, supported housing, elder care) and investigate the relevant sites of this field of practice within their community. Students are also asked to gain an understanding of the policies (municipal, territorial, federal and First Nation governmental) that govern the chosen area of social work practice. The final product of this assignment will be a group presentation for the class on the chosen field.

Assignment 3 - Critical Self Reflection on Social Work Practice (40%)
Due Week 13
For this final assignment students will select a social problem that is relevant to social workers and describe the problem in detail. Students will then be asked to describe how they imagine that they - as a social worker - would work to address this problem in their community. This assignment will ask students to reflect on their own values and intersecting social positions and how these would influence their practice.
Participation - Contribution Assessment & Attendance (15%)
Due December 7th

Students are asked to submit an assessment of their learning throughout the semester and their contributions to the class.
