COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course builds on content from other courses to assist students to explore concepts and care-giving approaches that will allow them to work effectively with individuals experiencing cognitive challenges. Emphasis is on recognizing behaviours and identifying person-centered intervention strategies.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Prerequisite(s): None

EQUIVALENCY OR TRANSFERABILITY

Transfers not yet formalized through BCCAT, due to recent changes in BC Curriculum. Receiving institutions determine course transferability. Find further information at:

https://www.yukonu.ca/admissions/transfer-credit

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

- Describe ways to organize, administer and evaluate person-centred care and assistance for clients/residents experiencing cognitive health challenges.
- Use an informed problem-solving process when caring for individuals experiencing cognitive health challenges.
- o Demonstrate an understanding of effective approaches to disruptive or abusive behaviour.
- Describe types of abuse/abusive relationships and the cycle of abuse. (Abuse is mentioned as well in other courses; 101, 102 for example).
- o Know when to exit a potentially unsafe situation.

Yukon University recognizes that a greater understanding and awareness of Yukon First Nations history, culture and journey towards self-determination will help to build positive relationships among all Yukon citizens. As a result, to graduate from ANY Yukon University program, you will be required to achieve core competency in knowledge of Yukon First Nations. For details, please see www.yukonu.ca/yfnccr

COURSE FORMAT

Each class will have 3 hours of direct instruction time over the total of 10 classes. It is expected that this course will require 2-5 hours/week of homework and additional reading. The time required will vary by individual.

Delivery format

This course is delivered on campus, in person. Students are expected to attend class and may be required complete assignments and/or activities online or individually.

This course will consist of lectures, group work, learning activities, and may include guest speakers and other methods to optimise learning. The format for each class will include:

- Opportunity for questions on previous material
- Introduction and integration of new material
- Assignments & preparation for next class

EVALUATION

All evaluative components for this course are mandatory.

Participation	10 %
Assignment	30 %
Quizzes	25 %
Final Exam	35 %
Total	100%

Late Assignments/Work: For every day an assignment is late (after assigned due date) 5% will be deducted from the original paper grade.

No assignment will be accepted more than one week (7 calendar days) following the due date unless arrangements are made with instructor of that specific course in advance of due date. Assignments not handed in one week after due date will receive a 0 (failing) grade.

Attendance & Participation

10%

This course is part of the HCA program which is experiential; therefore attendance is essential. Attendance means being at class on time every day, prepared for the class and participating to the end of the class. If you cannot be at class, you must notify the instructor in advance and you must arrange to get the class notes and information from your classmates. You are responsible for the information and materials of every class.

Participation includes your active involvement in the activities of the classroom and completion of assignments, reading, quizzes, etc. Coming to class regularly, being on time, being prepared for the class, speaking up in class and handing in your assignments when due will contribute greatly to your success.

Dementia Assignment 30%

In this assignment, students will demonstrate to the instructor and their classmates what they think it would be like for them to have dementia. This requires personal reflection and the evidence of integration of experience and knowledge/theory from this course.

Tests/Quizzes 25%

Quizzes will be completed throughout the course to assess the learning. There are no re-writes for quizzes.

Final Exam 35%

The final exam is cumulative and will cover material and information presented in class, the readings and discussions.

NOTE: If a student should fail the final exam a re-write/supplemental exam is not guaranteed, but at the discretion of the instructor.
